“Dear Fr. John, Fr. Michael, Fr. Deacon Ihor & Parishioners of St. Vladimir’s, Glory to Jesus Christ!

I am enclosing a small “thank you” to you and your parish for the wonderful hospitality and kindness your parish showed to the OCMC Board. Your choir was heavenly and more than one Board member told me the service was moving. You carefully tended to the needs of the Board and our UOC of USA was cast in a good light because of your efforts. May God continue to look down on you all.

- In Christ’s Love, Gayle Woloschak”

Over the last few years, it has become obvious that our secular society has taken hold of our younger families, especially in the area of their children’s sports. The clergy are truly frustrated. It seems that no amount of speaking or writing on this topic is able to convince our younger families of the grave sin committed by neglecting God and His Holy Church.

With this in mind, beginning on Sunday, October 16th, we have added an additional petition to be prayed during the Triple Litany following the Gospel reading. This prayer is printed below. Please unite with the clergy during the Liturgy, praying that the Lord will change the hearts and minds of our younger families and bring to them the true understanding of the meaning of being a responsible Christian parent.

“Again we pray, O Lord, for our young families with children who are growing up in these very difficult and challenging times. Give them faith, wisdom, courage and strength to raise their sons and daughters to be faithful to You and Your Holy Commandments. We pray that You Lord will instill in our mothers and fathers the knowledge that You – and only You – can give their children true purpose and happiness in life. Instill in them a love for Our Holy Orthodox Church and the desire to worship You every Sunday and unite with You in Holy Communion. Let our parents teach their children by example, so that they, in turn, will raise their own children to be God loving members of Your Church. O Merciful Lord, hear our prayers and have mercy.”
